AMY AIDINIS HIRSCH INTERIOR DESIGN

A renovated plumbing business in Greenwich made for an impressive new interior design studio for Amy Aidinis Hirsch, and on January 30, New England Home Connecticut welcomed clients and the local design community to see the beautiful transformation firsthand.

From impeccably organized fabric samples to design notes pinned to the walls, Hirsch's passion for her business was evident and set the tone for the evening. As guests explored the studio and networked, they were also treated to delicious hors d'oeuvres, desserts, and beverages from Caperberry Events & Catering.
